ICC Report: Shawn Strausbaugh

Shawn talked about the ICC Richmond Conference is October 21-29 2018, which will include Education Training Programs, opportunities for CEUs, and Final Action Hearings for Group A, other activities, all available on the ICC website.

Shawn also reminded us to verify voting validations prior to the ICC Conference, and that ICC Scholarships and Matching Funds are available through application with VPMIA.

August 31st, is the date of publishing ICC Code Changes.

ICC Region VII: Rick Witt

There will be a mock Code Hearing presentation at the ICC Region VII meeting in Hagerstown, Md., for next meeting, scheduled for September 13-14, 2018, see Region VII webpage for details.

DHCD: Sandy Morris

Sandy talked about the availability of legacy codes being made available to Building Code Official throughout the state sometime this fall, and ask that she be contacted if the legacy codes are not received.

The 2015 Code adoption effective date is September 4, 2018.

Virginia version of the adopted I- codes, published by the ICC, were ordered, but will not be available by September 4, 2018.

First code change training for 2015 codes, held in Prince William County.

Online training will be available this fall.

New Business

Shawn Strausbaugh reminded us that the ICC has a limited number of Scholarships available for 2018 Richmond Conference, and be sure to get your application before deadline to apply.

Former ICC, and VPMIA, VBCOA President Guy Tomberlin shared a few words with us, as he reflected on the history of the organization and the need for the membership to participate in the ICC Committees, by answering the ICC call to Committees. He spoke about Virginia's reputation and leadership on ICC Committees and Councils, and encouraged us to continue to actively participate in the code committees and code development process.

President James Anjam, asked for any further discussion or comments, and adjourned meeting.
