VPMIA TREASURERS REPORT

2/26/2019

Current Balances:
New Checking Account – $68911.99
PayPal Account Balance - $1565.43
Old Checking Account – Closed
Credit Card Balances – $0.00

One of our credit cards was compromised on 2/17/2019. A charge for $112.45 was made at a restaurant in Carlisle PA. I have canceled the card and ordered a new card. I have also disputed the charge. BB&T stated that this will be refunded within 15 days.

We have received about $20,000 in revenue since our last meeting. These monies are from membership renewal, 2019 Yearbook ad sales, and Table Top sales.

Expenditures since our last meeting include:
$452.14 to Jefferson Engraving
$100.00 to Region VII ICC
$3510.90 In payments to Credit Cards which covers new membership materials, workbooks for SOI ICC class ($3227.70), and renewal fee for Constant Contact ($168.00) and lunch at the last BOD meeting.

Sincerely,

Anthony V. McMahan
VPMIA Treasurer
Ex-Officio Committee Reports:

ICC: Shawn Strausbaugh

Shawn led a discussion about VPMIA participation in the ICC Highschool Technical Code Training Program. He spoke about some of the success that program has already achieved in various ICC chapters, and encouraged VPMIA membership to reach out to High schools about starting a program. There was further discussion about having a management structure to advance the program with ICC.

Anthony McMahan made a motion to form AD HOC committee to look into how to help with Highschool training program. The motion was second and after brief discussion, was passed by membership. James Anjam Past President of VPMIA, made a motion to give $1500 dollars to help Highschool Code Training Program. The motion was second and passed by the membership.

Shawn also talk about some of the programs to offered at the ICC Hearings in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and encouraged participation by VPMIA membership.

ICC Region VII: Cindy Davis

Discussed the Emory Rodgers Leadership Fellowship is accepting applications until June 30th and discussed program for participants for those accepted.

Confirmed validation of voting will only be required once per code cycle. All voters who validated their voting last year should still be valid through the end of this code cycle and be sure that dues are paid to keep voting validated.

DHCD Report: Skip Harper

Charlotte Carter retired in March, after 34 years with DHCD and the Jack Proctor Virginia Building Code Academy

DHCD is in the process of upgrading the agency’s website. The new site is expected to go live in April.

Effective February 18th, the new and improved cdpVa. is open for submission of code change proposals for the 2018 Code Development Cycle for the following regulations:

- Uniform Statewide Building Code
- Statewide Fire Prevention Code
- Amusement Device Regulations
- Certification Standards
- Manufactured Home Safety Regulations
Industrialized Building Safety Regulations

If you have any questions or need assistance please contact sbco@dhcd.virginia.gov

The board of Housing and Community Development met on March 18th and approved publishing of NOIRAs for the USBC, SFPC, VADR, MHSR and IBSR. The NOIRAs are scheduled to be published on April 15th in the Virginia Register of Regulations, with a comment period open until May 15th on the Virginia Town Hall. The BHCD also approved a revised schedule for the schedule for the 2018 code development cycle and it has been posted on cpdVA and on the 2018 Code Development web page.

Workgroup meetings for the proposed phase are tentatively scheduled and are posted on cdpVA and on the 2018 Code Development web page.

Advertisement/Yearbook: Anthony McMahan: volunteered to continue as chair, he also asked the membership about the quality of the yearbook if everyone liked this year’s edition.

We took in $2600 for table top, $3,000 for advertisement, with $ 2705 spend for printing.

We thanked Vic Hines for recruitment of additional advertisers.

Auditing: Tom Clark: will set up for transfer Audit in Fairfax.

Awards: Randy Bowman: Awards successfully handed out all the awards at the banquet as planned and congratulated the recipients.

Bylaws: Dustin McLehaney: no report

Information Technology: Jane Kim: Announced that we renewed our subscription for Constant Contact

Education: Chris Hickey made a motion to replace secretary laptop and spend up to $1000 dollars for replacement, motion was second and passed. He also requested suggestions for education training classes for next SOI at Graves Mountain to be determined at next BOD meeting in June.

Nominating: Dustin: No report until next election of new officers next year

Legislative: Ron Clements: submitted written VBCOA/VPMIA Legislative Committee Report to be posted on the website.

PMG: Richard Grace: written report was posted on the website

Time and Place: Bob Akins: Next location is Richmond Area, James Anjam suggested keeping Book It Now to arrange events, because of the great job they do in representing VPMIA in setting up our events. The majority in attendance at General Membership Meeting agreed to book the same hotel, The Holiday Inn & Conference Center for next year’s Spring General Membership, and SOI, for April 8,9,10, 2020 through Book It Now.
BCAAC: Randy Pearce: submitted a written report to be posted on website.

Cindy Davis mentioned that DHCD will provide the mandatory CEU online training required to maintain accessibility certification, and DHCD will continue to accept ICC certifications.

VCEC: Dustin McLehaney: no report

VBCOA: Rick Witt: announced the next VBCOA Annual Conference will held September 9, 2020 at the Hilton Oceanfront on 31st Street, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Old Business: We decided to complete booking and registration set up for Summer General Meeting and SOI before June BOD Meeting.

New Business: We discussed candidate Michael Witt running for next Secretary Treasurer of ICC Board, the motion to support was made and passed.

Shawn Strausbaugh announced that the ICC Portal has new complaint survey on the portal, and the ICC would welcome feedback of any their concerns.

Randy Pearce suggested that would like to modify the next SOI training sessions and order of events, to encourage more participation of membership that have not attended before.

President Anjam adjourned meeting.
